T O T H E

PErhaps it may be expected I should declare the Names of the late Proprietors of these Books, but I desire the Reader's Excuse, since I'm oblig'd to the contrary: Yet thus much I must say, That the concealing their Names would probably be an Injury to the sale of their Books, did not their own Worth sufficiently recommend 'em to the Consideration of the Learned; who, if they please to peruse this Catalogue, will find good Books, suited to all Professions. There are Duplicates of some, as may be easily suppos'd, when 'tis a complicated Catalogue; which, tho' not methodiz'd as I could wish, yet will, without doubt, be satisfactory to such as shall entertain themselves with reading it over, and with an Inspection of the Books, which are generally well Bound. Such Persons as shall attend the Sale, shall have all the fair usage imaginable; and such as can't, may have their Commissions duly executed, if sent to the place of sale, (Carriage being paid) and directed to

Their and Your humble Servant,

Jacob Hooke.

THE Conditions of Sale.

I. That he who Bids most is the Buyer: And if any Difference arise, the Book or Books so controverted shall be re-expos'd to Sale.

II. That all the Books (not otherwise exprest) are suppos'd to be perfect; but if any prove defective, before taken away, it shall be at the liberty of the Buyer to accept or refuse 'em.

III. That every Buyer shall declare his Name, Quality, and Place of Abode, and also pay Five Shillings in the Pound, in part of what he buys, if demanded.

IV. That no Person shall advance less than Six-pence each Bidding, after a Book arises to the Sum of Ten Shillings.

V. That no Person shall be admitted to be a Buyer, who has not paid for the Books he bought in former Auctions.

VI. That the Moneys for the Books so bought shall be paid at the Place of Sale, within 3 Days after 'tis ended; during which time Attendance will be given for the Delivery of the Books, and the Receipt of the Moneys.

 The Books will be expos'd to View Three Days before the Sale begins.
